The exam has THREE components:

1. Reading (40 marks)	Time: 60 mins
2. Listening (30 marks)	Time: approximately 50 mins
3. Writing (30 marks)	Time: 60 mins

1. Reading (40 marks)

Time: 60 mins

There will be two reading texts of approximately 2200-2300 words in total. Text 1 will be factual/informative (1000-1200 words) while Text 2 will be persuasive/evaluative (1000-1200 words). You will answer 40 questions based on both reading texts. A variety of question types are used, including: multiple choice; short answer questions; sentence completion; matching; Yes, No, Not given; choosing from a list; True, False, Not Given; and summary gap fill. Reading contributes 40% of total exam grade.

Answers for the Reading must be recorded on the READING ANSWER SHEET in PENCIL

2. Listening (30 marks)

Time: approximately 50 minutes

Part A: Mini-presentation

Listen to a mini lecture and complete the notes. First, you will have 2 minutes to skim the notes. Then, you will listen and complete the notes as you listen. The recording will be played ONCE only.

Part B: Lecture

You will listen to a lecture and answer the questions. First you will listen to the lecture. After that you will have 3 minutes to read the questions. Then you will listen to the lecture for the second time. At the end you will have 5 minutes to answer the questions and transfer your answers to the answer sheet. The recording will be played TWICE. You will answer 30 questions in total. A variety of question types are used, including: multiple choice; outline completion; table/diagram completion; note completion; and choosing from a list. Listening contributes 30% of total exam grade.

Answers for the Listening must be recorded on the LISTENING ANSWER SHEET in PENCIL

3. Writing (30 marks)

Time: 60 minutes

You will be presented with a choice of TWO essay questions and will be tested on your ability to respond by giving and justifying an opinion, discussing aspects of an issue, outlining problems, identifying possible solutions, and supporting what you write with reasons and relevant examples. You must choose ONE and write an essay (approximately 300 words). Writing contributes 30% of total exam grade.
